Notice of MaineCare Service Reduction

Smoking cessation

Starting September 1, 2012, smoking cessation products will no longer be covered by MaineCare except for pregnant women. Pregnant women will still be able to get smoking cessation products covered by MaineCare.

The Maine Tobacco Helpline may be able to help you. The helpline provides support services to help you quit smoking. If you qualify, they will talk about using a nicotine patch, lozenge, or gum as part of their Medication Program. You can call the Maine Tobacco Helpline at 1-800-207-1230.

Your Appeal Rights: If you feel that you were denied these products inappropriately and would like to appeal this decision, please contact:
